Good Evening Pasig Rotarians!

We will also celebrate the anniversary of one of our flagship program, the Luxid Rotary Microfinance and Credit Cooperative that we launched in 2017 together with the Ateneo Alumni batch 1963.

In today's meeting we will have as our very own fellow Pasig Rotarian Hall of Famer and Past President Conrad Cuesta as speaker to updates us on the different programs of the cooperative since its launch a few years back. Also, Immediate Past President RJ Ermita has successfully formed the cooperative finance committee which he headed with Rtn Col Gene Menor, Rtn Doc Ferz Legaspi and Rtn Oyie Averilla as members. Rtn Gene and Rtn Ferz have extensive experience with cooperative operation as they are currently sit at the board committee level of the various top cooperative in the country.

Continuation 1.

Due to the implementation of ECQ in NCR, we decided to provide Ayuda support of dry food pack for 200 families for our adopted communities in GK Village, Ilugin and our Coop. Repacking will be done by our GK Volunteer and our service committee and public image can help in the coordination and proper documentation of the distribution. Thank you HOF/PP Doc Jess Acantilado for volunteering to lead the ground operation and Rtn Dekdek Paloma for volunteering to help. The club is open for more suggestion from the rest of the membership and need your continuing support and contribution as this ECQ could be extended. Thank you for all your support, the irreverent but benevolent, the Rotary Club of Pasig.

Special thanks to our officers who regularly attend our District 3800 event and webinar in The Rotary Foundation (TRF), Public Image and Membership.

I also like to thank PP Engr Ogie Lim for helping out in the ongoing RC Pasig Health and Multipurpose Center building construction in Ilugin, Pinagbuhatan, Pasig. The club need to help in whatever way we can in the construction, which Past Rotary International Director Raffy Garcia been financing with his resources. We will be coming up with some support activities to help the completion and launching of the center within the year, our 50th year celebration.

Please continue to pray for the health of our fellow Rotarian, as be battle to contain the Delta variant. Also, pray for the speedy recovery of Rtn Carlo Doce, and the positive test results of Doc Ate Basco.

Keep Safe and Stay Healthy fellow Rotarian!

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

CLP Garrick and his team have proven to be ready to face many opportunities to serve our community with ongoing projects and, even a day before formally taking over, a good one for health betterment was on hand.

The Pangkat-led but a club project for the Outstanding Policemen of Pasig looks simple and just waiting for implementing as initiated by Rtn Chony. It was SOGOod given in a silver platter as parang filling the blanks na lang. However, there are some extra expenses that the Pangkat leader gave the first seed money to complete the project. PP Peter, in words of wisdom, cautioned that it may not be the proper step as this is a club project initiated through the Pangkat. Raising the needed balance must be a club affair as future projects may not be initiated by other Pangkats should a precedent on funding is set. Besides, it is not Rotary if you do not spread it around.

Last week's speaker was so at ease that getting him to join us will mutually be good. It will hasten the growth of his already diverse GIGA and it may enthuse our younger members to pursue similar lines or approaches in different lines. Could he be related to the former charismatic Gen. Rene de Villa?

I always enjoy the column of PP Peter for a good smile. His latest Alphabet for Seniors was a narration of what us as superseniors will get one time or the other not in just in one or two but multiple ones. Sana mild in most cases so as not to go to the crowded hospitals.

In the international scenes are on two outgoing senior public officials. Angela Merkel had the country's standing ovation as she did well as Chancellor of Germany. Her inspiring leadership without the fanfare and without the lavish style that even our Mayor are super equipped with, like the body guards and retinue of aides, made Germany the leading economy in Europe. No servants even in her simple home as she did not use the residence of the Chancellor of the Land. The other one, in less than two weeks will step down as Governor of New York ridiculously saying, "I did not cross the line" when accused by 11 women of sexual harassment. What he meant by not crossing the line would mean that he did not have sex with any of the 11. The claimed touching is very hard to prove. Walang finger prints sa ganuon touching. Or, I have not gone even at opening any attire of the 11 protesters. But to resign, isn't that admission of guilt? Atty Rod, hindi ba guilty?

PP Ner is affected by the lockdown. He must decide where to stay longer, Pasig or Batangas? He is very much against the ayuda of the government. He wants to remove the lockdown and urge people to work. Just avoid getting Covid and the economy will improve. This exercise will be a temptation to any leader on how to control the country in a devious manner.

The Covid 19 is a serious matter especially the Delta variant. Let us enjoin all members of our families to do stricter protocols to prevent the spread. And, let us pray for PPs Ed and Rene and Rtn Carlo for a faster recovery.

GORDON R. MCINALLY OF SCOTLAND SELECTED TO BE 2023-24 ROTARY INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT

Gordon R. McInally, a member of the Rotary Club of South Queensferry, Lothian, Scotland, is the selection of the Nominating Committee for President of Rotary International for 2023-24.

Gordon R. McInally, a member of the Rotary Club of South Queensferry, Lothian, Scotland, is the selection of the Nominating Committee for President of Rotary International for 2023-24. He will be declared the president-nominee on 1 October if no challenging candidates have been suggested.

McInally lauded Rotary's ability to adapt technologically during the COVID-19 pandemic, saying the approach should continue and be combined with the best of our past practices as Rotary seeks to grow and increase engagement.

"We have learned there is a willingness within communities to care for one another," he says, "and we must ensure that we encourage people who have recently embraced the concept of volunteering to join us to allow them to continue giving service."

McInally says that senior leaders' ability to communicate directly with club members online will be one positive legacy of the changes Rotary has had to make. But, he adds, "face-to-face meetings remain important, as they encourage greater interaction."

Walking the Avenues

PP Jun C. Zafra

Continuation I.

The best way to increase membership is engagement, according to McNally. To better support clubs, he says, Rotary International, regional leaders, and district teams all need to engage with them. Engagement through social media will reinforce Rotary's brand and showcase the opportunities that come with it. And, he says, engagement with governments, corporations, and other organizations will lead to meaningful partnerships.

With better engagement, McNally says, "We will grow Rotary both by way of membership and in our ability to provide meaningful service."

He adds, "Membership is the lifeblood of our organization. I would encourage the use of the flexibility now available to establish new-style clubs that would appeal to a different demographic."

McNally, a graduate of dental surgery at the University of Dundee, owned and operated his own dental practice in Edinburgh. He was the chair of the British Paedodontic Society and has held various academic positions. He has also served as a Presbytery elder, chair of Queensferry Parish Congregational Board, and commissioner to the church's general assembly.

A Rotary member since 1984, McNally has been president and vice president of Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland. He has also served Rotary International as a director and as member or chair of several committees. He is currently an adviser to the 2022 Houston Convention Committee and vice chair of the Operations Review Committee.

FASCINATING OLD WORDS THAT DESERVE TO BE POPULAR AGAIN

The ever-evolving nature of language has its drawback, and one of these drawbacks is that many words fall out of use and are forgotten, becoming obsolete remnants found in the dictionaries alone. But some of these rare old worlds are really cool and can describe things we usually need a whole sentence for. For instance, instead of saying “let's postpone until the day after tomorrow”, you can simply say “let's perendinate”, how convenient is that (and also fun to say)? These old words are missing links in our vocabulary and definitely deserve to be brought back into day-to-day speech.

Grufeling – to lie wrapped up in a comfortable manner.

Uhtceare – lying awake and worrying about the day ahead.

Abliguration – spending lavish amounts of money on food.

Fudgel – the act of giving the impression of working but actually doing nothing,

Dysania – the extreme difficulty one experiences when getting out of bed in the morning.

Snollygoster – a person who has intelligence, but no principles, especially a politician.

Perendinate - to put off until the day after tomorrow.

Frobly-mobly – neither good, nor well.

Tinig Tidbits

By: PP Peter M. Javier

Continuation 1.

Slugabed – a person stays in bed after the usual or proper time to get up.

Grumbletonians – people who are angry or unhappy with the government.

Twatting – gossiping idly about unimportant things.

Shivviness – the uncomfortable feeling of wearing new underwear.

Philogrobilized – having a hangover but without admitting to actually drinking.

Ultracrepidarian – somebody who gives opinions about topics they know nothing about.

Cacoethes – the irresistible urge to do something inadvisable,

Lanspresado – someone who conveniently shows up with no money.

Groke – someone who stares at you when you eat hoping you will share.
