Invocation

Ever loving Father you sent your son Jesus Christ to redeem us unworthy though we are. We praise & thank you for the tremendous love you show us. May the coming Holy week be an opportunity for us to kneel, repent and live according to your holy will. Bless us this afternoon. May our fellowship and deliberations give you glory and honor through Christ our Lord. Amen.

From: Rtn. Fr. Jojo Opinio

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- First : The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for Service;
- Second : High Ethical standards in business and professions; the Recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- Third : The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;
- Fourth : The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Song of the Day

AMAZING GRACE

Amazing Grace
From the Lord above
That inspires Pasig Rotarians

I once was by myself
But now I'm involved
With my club I now can serve

'Twas Rotary that taught
Me how to serve
With His grace I can do it well.

How timely did
That grace appear
From the Lord above

Since we've been around
For fifty three years now
We're always been here to serve

We're also always ready
To sing God's praise
Ever since we first began

Song of the Day

Continuation 1.

Amazing Grace
From the Lord above
That inspires Pasig Rotarians

I once was by myself
But now I'm involved
With my club I now can serve.

(Lyrics adaptation by HOF/PP Peter)

From the President

Pres. Adolf Aran

Today, in observance of the coming Holy Week, we are called upon to reflect and ponder on our faith. Fr Kel Ortega is our recollection leader and requests us to read the Scriptures below.

The Gospel according to John 13: 1-18

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

13 It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

2. The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus.
3. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God;
4. So he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist.
5. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.
6. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"
7. Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."
8. "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.

From the President

Pres. Adolf Aran

Continuation 1.

9. “Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!”
10. Jesus answered, “Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you.”
11. For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.
12. When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them.
13. “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am.
14. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet.
15. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.
16. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.
17. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.
18. “I am not referring to all of you; I know those I have chosen. But this is to fulfill this passage of Scripture: ‘He who shared my bread has turned against me.’”

Let’s create hope in the world and serve our community.
Mabuhay ang Rotary Club of Pasig!

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

Who says there is no break in writing columns? Nest week is a break. You may not attend on Thursday meeting next week.

The talk of the town is the 80th milestone of our PRID/HOF Raffy. Twenty years before, he had a week's celebration at Mandarin Hotel then in Makati City as he claimed he is the only Garcia in his family to reach 60. His dad and two younger brothers died in their mid-50s. On his 80th, truly a milestone in achievements and sharing is his major gift of giving back. A portion but meaningfully big.

In the world of Rotary, he has given millions in dollars. He delayed our major clinic to be a bigger one under his new foundation. Kasama na ba ang ambulance?

We had a first time fining by the Doding Carlos newly claimed duo in Rtn Flor. It wa unique but not followed up properly. He was fining and half was to go to Rtn Fr. Kell but I don't think nasunod. He also was active exchanging comments with DGN Gina, our speaker. Anyway, as a good golfer, PP Peter invited Rtn Fr. Kell to be today's speaker and the lost income for the parish will be multiplied a hundred times.

The Alfabasa project was a very good success. It should be a continuing one.

Rtn Pal was shown harvesting first class watermelon in his Iloilo farm. He has very good projects all around the country. May you tell us all including your resort in Pangasinan?

When Rtn Mads was asked about the coffee table book, I asked if my three trips for Rotary District 3800 is worth including. He asked me for pictures. I am one guy who does not keep records. My two diplomas from UP, I have no copy. My meaningful Group Study Exchange tours for our district with my spouse Pura in Wisconsin and Michigan USA and my same task as team leader in London I have no pictures. I think it is for the entire Philippine Rotary when I was sent to Sydney, Australia for the Probus Seminar. Even PRID Raffy made me district chair of Probus which for the retirement group of former Rotarians. I was the lead ninong for the chartering of the Rotary Club of Valle Verde.

Once a PP of ours was asking me how I fared when I was president and the governor was from our club. I was dared by the late PDG Mike Ampil for not agreeing to create more clubs but instead to strengthen first existing clubs. He was then with this DGN Fil Mendoza when he refused to sit in the presidential table claiming that he was there to attend as a member. He accused me of having no balls. I dared him to go in front and show both of our fronts to tell the club to decide. With my president's message asking to stop new clubs first without strengthening existing clubs, he got all the Tinig and claimed he had the right as governor. I told him that it was an abuse. He then questioned if there was proper notification and due notice two weeks before a club assembly. Since my secretary was a true blooded Jaycees who knew the rules, the late Mayor Mario Raymundo stood his ground that in a modern world, calls and newly used text messaging were allowed. He met greater resistance for the late PP Rody Cruz when he told Gov Mike, awesome power of the Governor? Who said?

NEW FILM TELLS STORY OF SIR NICHOLAS WINTON, WORLD WAR II HERO AND HUMANITARIAN

Rotarian saved hundreds of children at risk of being killed by the Nazis in the lead up to World War II

“If something is not impossible, there must be a way to do it,” Rotarian Sir Nicholas Winton once said. Known to his friends as “Nicky,” the British stockbroker rescued hundreds of predominantly Jewish children from the Holocaust in the months leading up to World War II. Winton, who died in 2015 at the age of 106, is now the subject of a new film, “One Life,” starring Sir Anthony Hopkins and Helena Bonham Carter. It was released in January 2024 in the United Kingdom.

The film tells the true story of how Winton rescued 669 children from the Nazi advance and found homes for them in the United Kingdom. During a visit to Prague, Czechoslovakia, in December 1938, Winton saw numerous families who had fled the spread of Nazism in Germany and Austria. The refugees were living in desperate conditions, with little or no shelter or food, as the German invasion of Czechoslovakia loomed. Winton immediately realized it was a race against time: How many children could he rescue before the borders closed?

Producers Emile Sherman and Iain Canning first contemplated telling Winton’s story when they co-founded See-Saw Films more than 15 years ago.

PP Jun C. Zafra

“We were very lucky to have had the opportunity to meet Nicholas Winton before he passed away,” Canning says. “He was the most modest, generous human being. [He] felt the film should not glorify him, but celebrate how the most ordinary of people can make a huge impact.”

With the blessing of Winton’s daughter, Barbara Winton, See-Saw approached screenwriter Lucinda Coxon to adapt Barbara’s 2014 book “If It’s Not Impossible.” Collaborating with Barbara, the screenwriting team gained access to Nicholas’ archives and letters. Barbara was a familiar face at Rotary district conferences. She passed away in 2022, during the making of the film.

Barbara’s book was an essential resource for the cast. Explaining how she got a sense of Nicholas Winton’s mother, Babi, Bonham Carter said, “Barbara was named after Babi. I was very lucky to speak to Barbara, to have her perspective as a granddaughter.”

It was Barbara’s wish that Sir Anthony Hopkins should play her father.

“When Barbara read the first draft of the script, she called us to say that Anthony Hopkins would be perfect for the role, which we of course agreed with,” Canning says. “But [that] left us with a challenge because it was beyond our wildest dreams that Hopkins would read the script and want to play Nicky. Incredibly, he did, and it was magical for all of us to know we had an extraordinary actor playing a man who was such an inspirational humanitarian.”

Hopkins got to meet some descendants of the people Winton saved, who were featured in one scene of the film.

“It was like a kick in the chest when all the descendants came in,” Hopkins says. “It was hard to try not to be sentimental, but it was very moving.”

The screenplay addressed Winton’s family history and how it informed his choices.

“Nicky’s Jewish ancestry meant he was alert to what it meant to be an émigré from the rise of Nazism in Europe,” says Nick Drake, who wrote the screenplay with Coxon. “He was ashamed by the Allies’ betrayal of the Czech people in the Munich Agreement. [He] saw the consequences of that agreement in human terms, [in] these appalling camps where refugees from Germany [and] Austria... were living in intolerable conditions. He was motivated by the reality he saw in front of him and decided to do something about it.”

The film was shot in Prague and England, working with two crews in two languages. It used authentic Prague locations, even filming on the same station platform where the children said goodbye to their families and departed for the UK more than 80 years ago. A bronze statue of Winton marks the historic spot.

Walking the Avenues

PP Jun C. Zafra

Winton faced many challenges in bringing the children to the UK.

“There was a belief in the UK [that] they weren’t at risk; a lot of people saying, ‘It’s fine, there’s no issue... they’re not in Austria or Germany,’” says James Hawes, the film’s director. “Another challenge was British bureaucracy and xenophobia: the newspapers and politicians saying, ‘We’re a small, crowded island. There’s no place for more people here.’ Nicky had to fight that prejudice – raising the public consciousness, writing articles – way before the Internet or broadcast news.”

Hopkins adds that he hopes the film will keep the memory of Winton’s effort alive.

“I only hope this will send a message, lest we forget,” he says. “Because we forget so quickly.”
