Song of the Day

IT'S THE 4-WAY TEST

(Tune: It's The Real Thing)

We'd like to help Pilipinos live
In perfect harmony
We'd like to help Pilipinos grow
As honest as can be.

The 4-Way Test is what we offer
To guide their way through life
It teaches them to tell the truth
And not to tell a lie.

Refrain:

It's the 4-Way Test
It's Rotary's way
We're all proud to say
It's the 4-Way Test

We'd like to help Philippines grow
In the most beneficial ways
And bring Pilipinos all together
In harmony and peace.

The 4-Way Test is what we offer
To bind them all as one.
They'll cherish truth as their ideal
Put lying out of mind

(Repeat Refrain)

(Adaptation from It's The Real Thing for Rotary by PP Peter)

From the President

Pres. Bernard Dy

Dear Fellow Rotarians, Guests, and Friends from Zone 6,

We started the week with a heavy heart as we mourn the passing of Pope Francis—a quiet yet radical voice of love and truth in our time. For many of us Catholics, his leadership was deeply personal. He challenged the world not with anger, but with tenderness. One of his most quoted lines still echoes today: “Truth, according to the Christian faith, is God’s love for us in Jesus Christ. Therefore, truth is a relationship.”

In many ways, Pope Francis lived the Four-Way Test without ever needing to recite it. He embodied truth, fairness, goodwill, and a life that truly benefited others.

Today, we also welcome a guest who is no stranger to truth and justice—ICC Judge Raul Pangalangan. Thank you, Judge for joining us and sharing your wisdom.

As Rotarians, we walk a unique path. We are called to be non-political—never partisan—yet we are also called to stand for truth, fairness, and justice. This is not a contradiction. It’s what makes Rotary different.

When we ask “Is it the truth?” we are not seeking comfort—we are seeking what is real, what uplifts rather than divides.

When we ask “Is it fair to all concerned?” we don’t pick sides—we choose integrity.

From the President

Pres. Bernardo Dy

Continuation 1.

When we ask “Will it build goodwill and better friendships?” we remember that truth, spoken with respect, can heal more than it hurts.

And when we ask “Will it be beneficial to all concerned?” we aim to serve, not to win.

Let me also warmly welcome our fellow Rotarians from Zone 6 of District 3800. Your presence today strengthens the bonds we share.

In these polarizing times, many of us have seen good friends—even family—drift apart, not over real values, but because of fake news, trolls, and deep fakes. It’s heartbreaking.

So let us choose to be different. Let us be grounded, not swayed. Discerning, not divided. Kind, not combative.

We don’t need to agree on everything. But we can stand together—for truth, for peace, for service, and for one another.

Yours in Rotary,

Bernardo Dy
President, Rotary Club of Pasig

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

Two weeks of break in writing a column is contagious as I got lazy with the heat out and you enjoy the comfort of your room air conditioner. But call of duty first.

We had break after the parangal for the outstanding policemen of Pasig. Rtn Chony who is the principal sponsor of this great project, is ably supported by our club in properly getting the awardees. Chony is supported by two sons who are both highly qualified to be our members. Paging HOF/PP Conrad, i-endorse to our club?

PRRD and PRID? Our noted guest of honor, Hon. Raul Pangalangan would talk about the ICC and would refer to EJK where PRRD is the CEO and his COOs, Go and Bato, now a reelectionist senator. But Bato said he cannot step out during Holy Week at baka ma Huli Week siya. Such a weak defense as Huli Week is every day. PRID naman, our very own Raffy who is celebrating a milestone on his 81st Birthday with many days of celebrating is in better shape.

Next week is already the start of May and 11 days after, is our elections. Four of our members all doing well in their positions are running for reelection. Cong Roman, Mayor Vico, Vice Mayor Dodot and Konsi Simon. Outstanding Bokap Richie, a member is seeking a seat in the Council. Plus, a son of a former member and nephew of PP Peter and PPA Celia, Eric Gonzales is running for reelection as councilor. Let us support them.

In a remarkable show of support, I texted PP Vic Lim to possibly place a tarpaulin for my son-in-law running for reelection in their Quezon City district. The polite reply was very acceptable to me. PP Benny, there is no place in my residential wall as the wall is full of Heidi Mendoza for Senator. This is very inspiring as a kumpadre of mine texted to also vote for her. Can we have a text brigade of texting 12 friends to vote for Heidi and request all of them to text 12 of their friends as well? A good text brigade can do great help. PRID Raffy can also text the many PDGs around the country as Heidi is the spouse of an officer of the club and one good vote for a very qualified candidate can truly help not only Heidi but our country!

Speaking of election gimmicks, a good phrase can help good recall and add to the votes. But Ian Sia's comments had a strong negative backlash that more votes were lost. Parang hindi Christian remarks. Ian Sia, iyan siya ngayon, may disqualification case pang na file. I understand though he was an outstanding councilor before. Before you.

Many of us would be joining in the various days PRID Raffy is celebrating his grand 81st birthday. To the few of us who were on the birthday dinner last Tuesday, we were exposed to former RC Manila president who used the chance to explain many Rotary problems of another district and the removal of the International Convention of RI in our country. Wrong venue as more than half were not Rotarians. So? Jack went back to the hill.

Amplifying impact

Rotary and our sister magazines are a key player in rallying Rotary clubs globally, helping raise awareness and funds to support our causes.

Mykola Stebljanko publishes Rotariets, the Ukrainian magazine for Rotary news, from his home in Odesa, a port city on the Black Sea. In February three years ago, when Russia began an all-out war against his country, Stebljanko, a member of the Rotary E-Club of Ukraine, kicked into high gear. Amid the barrage of missile attacks against his city, he coordinated relief efforts with his fellow Rotary members in Ukraine through video calls. At the same time, he reached out to me and other editors of the Rotary Global Media Network, which consists of the flagship Rotary magazine and 33 independent regional publications, briefing us weekly on the situation and the extensive relief efforts launched by The Rotary Foundation and Rotary clubs around the world.

The members of the Rotary Global Media Network responded vigorously with in-depth coverage of the devastating humanitarian crisis brought on by the war and the importance of Rotary's assistance. The stories we published reached Rotary members worldwide, galvanizing them into action. By the end of 2024, The Rotary Foundation and Rotary clubs had raised tens of millions of dollars in contributions that helped provide essential support to people in Ukraine. This is one of many examples of the effectiveness of Rotary and our sister magazines in rallying Rotary clubs globally.

Walking the Avenues

Continuation 1.

In the spring of 2022, an article in this magazine about a Rotary-supported program in California called Music Mends Minds caught the attention of the Rotary community. The initiative promotes the use of music as a viable therapy to delay the symptoms of neurodegenerative dementia. Soon after publication, similar projects cropped up in other parts of the United States and the world. Similarly, after flooding struck Brazil in April 2024, the reporting by the Rotary regional magazines in Brazil as well as in Great Britain and Ireland helped spur an outpouring of support.

The list goes on. Each story is meticulously researched, written, and produced. We are a network of professional writers, photographers, and graphic designers who are passionate about telling your stories — to amplify the positive change you are creating in the world. For me and my fellow editors, it's been rewarding to see that our high-quality publications help strengthen our organization by fostering a sense of belonging for our members, increasing our membership, and offering a window into the Rotary world for the general public.

Surveys show that a majority of readers feel the flagship and regional magazines strengthen their connection with Rotary, allowing them to better understand the organization. "The magazine is a primer for Rotary members, keeping us informed on the who, what, when, where, why, and how of the world," says Sylvia Whitlock, a trailblazer who was the first woman to serve as president of a Rotary club. "Without the magazine, everything is just happenstance. Any good primer is beside you all the time."

Francis's God

Last Monday, April 21, the whole world (not just the Roman Catholic Apostolic Church) mourned at the passing of probably one of the best Popes in this century and that is Pope Francis. Pope Francis became famous even after being elected Pope way back in 2013, from taking a bus going to his hotel instead of taking a Papal limousine to visiting third world countries to bring the joy of the Gospel to the marginalized regardless of color, creed, and culture. But if there's one thing that struck the most is his definition of God.

For him, the Almighty God that we worship is a God of mercy and compassion. In fact, that was his motto and the theme in all of his messages and writings, that God indeed is mercy and compassion. This is what he preached and taught not only by his words but also by his actions especially when he visited Tacloban City in 2015 just to be with those who were affected by Typhoon Yolanda. Thus, he highlighted what Jesus taught, "'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners (Mt. 9:13)." As a result, the people of Tacloban City were able to recognize the merciful God in him.

Pope Francis really showed the mercy and compassion of God to all. How about us? When did we show the mercy and compassion of God to others especially to the poor?
